SECRETARY WILSON WILL HEAR STEAMSHIP AGENTS

Latter Protest Against Proposed Immigration Order Affecting Landing of Second-Class Passengers.

Secretary Wilson will give a public hearing Monday on a proposed immigration order which would force second-class steamship passengers arriving at New York to disembark at the immigration station at Ellis Island for examination as to their qualifications for admission to the United States.
Heretofore second-class passengers have been examined by immigration officials on the ship. The order would force them to undergo the same rigorous examination, under the same circumstances, as steerage passengers are now required to go through.

Explanation by Department.
It was explained at the Department of Labor today that the falling off of immigration caused by the European war resulted in a reduction of the examining force at the New York immigration station. With the reduced force the immigration authorities found themselves handicapped in attempting to supply officials to make the necessary examinations on board incoming liners. It was then decided to disembark second-class passengers with the steerage passengers at Ellis Island.

Steamship authorities protested, and they will have an opportunity to present their arguments Monday.
Fireman Injured in Fall.
Private L. M. Carroll of No. 12 engine company fell from a burning trash wagon near Florida and New York avenues yesterday and sustained injuries which necessitated his removal to Casualty Hospital. The wagon, filled with trash, was on its way to the dump, when its contents ignited. No. 12 engine company was first to respond to an alarm, and it was while Carroll was on the wagon trying to save the vehicle that he fell. No damage was done by the fire. Carroll was injured about the head and shoulders, but his condition was not serious when he reached the hospital.

WATERWAYS MEN MEET NOV. 9.

Preparedness of Coast Defenses to Be Main Topic at Savannah.

The question of preparedness of the coast defenses will occupy much of the time of the Atlantic Deepwater Waterways Association convention at Savannah, Ga., November 9-12, according to Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, president of the association, who, with Representative Small of North Carolina, have been here arranging with the War, Navy and Commerce departments for representation at the meeting.
Secretary Redfield will address the association on the value of waterways to commerce. Secretary Daniels probably will be there, and the War and Navy departments will send officers.

Robert D. Long, fifty-nine, a Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, died in a Baltimore hospital from injuries sustained September 27, when he was struck by a locomotive.

INCOME TAX TEST IN HIGHEST COURT

Annual Revenue of $82,000,000 at Stake in Argument on Constitutionality.

SUBJECT OF ATTACK
ON SEVERAL GROUNDS

Main Defense of the Law Prepared by the Government Under Attorney General.

An annual revenue to the government of $82,000,000 depends on the outcome of arguments today before the Supreme Court of the United States on the constitutionality of the income tax. The first cases to reach the court under the new system of federal taxation and the first involving the construction of the sixteenth amendment are at issue.

Attacking the law were corporations objecting to the law in part and as an entirety; mining companies voicing objections to the tax on mining income, and individuals attacking principally the additional tax on incomes in excess of $20,000. The main defense of the law has been prepared by the government. The briefs bear the names of Attorney General Gregory, Solicitor General Davis and Assistant Attorney General William Wallace, Jr.

"The ordinary system of indirect taxation upon consumption places upon the poor person a disproportionate share of the burden of government support," says the brief in reply to a charge of discrimination in the additional or surtax on incomes of more than $20,000. "Income taxation tends to shift the burden upward."

Heavier Burden by Greater Incomes.
"It is undeniable that the greater the income the greater the ease with which the payment of taxes is met.
Even allowing for the normal inevitable increase in the 'scale of living,' he who has the larger income can the more easily shoulder the burden of increasing, as the amount of income increases, the rate of taxation. At least, Congress has in its discretion determined that the heavier burden can be carried more easily by the larger income, and it is not for the courts to say that such classification is outrageous."

Answering a contention that despite the sixteenth amendment the Constitution still requires income taxes to be uniform, the brief urges that the uniformity rule is limited to excise taxes and does not reach direct taxes.

As to alleged discriminations, the government contends Congress has the recognizing power to make classifications so long as they are not unreasonable and are based on real distinction. Exemption of personal income taxation on the first $3,000 income and taxation of corporations on all income is justified on the ground that corporations have no personal or family expense, while loss of means to support a family by an individual results in more public charges.

Contention Upheld by Courts.

Complaints of discrimination against holding companies by requiring corporations and not individuals to pay a tax on corporate dividends are met with the statement that there is a greater difference between individuals and holding companies than between individuals and active corporations, and that the court has upheld a distinction in the latter instance in the corporation tax cases.

Collection of the additional tax from individuals and not from corporations is defended as avoiding double taxation. The argument that there is an unlawful discrimination in the tax upon husbands and wife living together in that they are entitled only to one exemption of $4,000 is answered with the point that Congress was justified in making a distinction between the separate maintenance of two persons on the one hand and their combined maintenance at lesser cost on the other.
The corporation tax decisions are referred to in the brief as authority for any interference of the tax with the formation of holding companies, and objections to requiring corporations to pay the tax are dismissed.

The contention that there is a very real difference between a corporation with an interest in indebtedness and one not so organized.

BRITISH CONSCRIPTION ISSUE TO BE FORCED

Proponents in Cabinet Desire Definite Ruling One Way or Another.

LONDON, October 13.—The parliamentary correspondent of the Daily News asserts that the conscriptionist members of the cabinet, headed by Winston E. Churchill and Earl Curzon, will make a renewed attempt at the cabinet meeting to force the issue and obtain a definite ruling for or against conscription.

The conscriptionist members believe, the Daily News continues, that Earl Kitchener is more inclined to their view than he was a month ago, and they also believe that if the British government should announce adoption of conscription at the present juncture, when a new war is beginning in the Balkans, it would have a striking effect on the military situation.

Several liberal members of the parliament are urging the government to appoint a committee to investigate the circumstances under which the Dardanelles expedition was begun and the manner in which it has been conducted.
It is considered doubtful that the government will consent.

Retail Merchants to Meet Friday.

The date of the fall meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association has been set for Friday evening at the Raleigh Hotel, beginning on public business in order to take up some important business that concerns the business men of Washington, and on which prompt action is necessary. The merchants will take up plans for pushing needed legislation.

COLEGES ALIENS HERE TO BE AMERICANS

Col. Roosevelt Says Foreign-Born Must Stand by Allegiance in Word and Deed.

DUTY OF ALL TO LEARN
LANGUAGE SPOKEN IN U. S.

Former President Makes Speech on "Americanism" Before Knights of Columbus in New York.

NEW YORK, October 13.—"The foreign-born population of this country must be an Americanized population—no other kind can fight the battles of America, either in war or in peace." Col. Theodore Roosevelt so asserted in a speech on "Americanism" before the Knights of Columbus at Carnegie Hall last night. Col. Roosevelt said that at the outset it was the duty of immigrants to learn English, and it was the duty of America to provide them means to learn English.

"If an immigrant is not fit to become a citizen, he should not be allowed to come here," said Col. Roosevelt. "It is his duty to be given all the rights, to earn his own livelihood and to better himself, that any man can have.
Take such a matter as the illiteracy test. I entirely agree with those who feel that many very excellent people would be excluded by an illiteracy test.
But why do you not admit aliens under bond to read and write at any certain time? It would then be a duty to see that they were given ample opportunity to learn to read and write and that they were reported if they failed to take advantage of the opportunity. No man can be a good citizen if he is not at least in process of learning to speak the language of his fellow-citizens. . . .
The foreign-born population must talk the language of the native-born citizens; it must possess American citizenship and American ideas."

"It must stand firm by its source of allegiance in word and deed and must show that in every fact it has renounced allegiance to every prince, potentate or foreign government. It must be maintained on an American standard of living so as to prevent labor disturbances in important plants and at critical times. None of these objects can be secured as long as we have immigrant colonies, ghettos and immigrant sections, and, above all, they cannot be assured so long as we consider the immigrant only as an industrial asset."

No Room for Hyphenated Americans

Col. Roosevelt said that just as democratic America required that church and state should be separate, that there should be no distinction of religious preference in naturalized Americans. Some of the very best Americans that I have ever known were naturalized Americans, Americans born abroad. But a hyphenated American is not an American at all. This is just as true of the man who puts German, Irish, English or French before the hyphen. Americanism is a matter of the spirit and of the soul. Our allegiance must be purely to the United States.

"The one absolutely certain way of bringing this nation to ruin, of preventing all possibility of its continuing to be a nation at all, would be to permit it to become a tangle of squabbling nationalities, an intricate knot of German-Americans, Irish-Americans, English-Americans, French-Americans, Scandinavian-Americans, Italian-Americans, each preserving its separate nationality each at heart feeling more sympathy with Europeans of that nationality, than with the other citizens of the American republic. . . .
"For an American citizen to vote as a German-American, an Irish-American or an English-American is to be a traitor to American institutions; and those hyphenated Americans who ter-rorize American politicians by threats of the foreign vote are engaged in treason to the American republic."

Favors Swiss Plan of Service.

Speaking of preparedness, Col. Roosevelt said that even in time of peace individuals and the railroad should cooperate, and that industrial disturbances should be eliminated. "The strike situation in the United States at this time is a scandal to the country as a whole and discreditable alike to employer and employee," he said.

"I am certain that the only permanently safe attitude for this country as regards national preparedness for self-defense is along the lines of universal service on the Swiss model.
Switzerland is the most democratic of nations. Its army is the most demonstrative of military or aggressive about Switzerland. It has been found a matter of actual practical experience in Switzerland that the universal military training has made a very man who is also a citizen, efficient and in the ability of the man thus trained to do well for himself in industry."

SELF-GOVERNMENT IS TOPIC.

History Given in Lecture on the Growth of Democracy.
A history of self-government in England and in America up to the time of the civil war was embraced in an address on the general growth of democracy delivered by Lloyd T.
Everett at a meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans held last night at the hall of that organization. Mr.
Everett took as his subject "Our Background: Growth and Development of Institutional Self-government." The entertainment which followed Miss Ethel Brockman gave a piano solo, Ralph Cady sang and recitations were given by Mrs. Shaw. The meeting was presided over by W. E. Brockman, commandant of the Washington Camp of the Sons of Veterans.

GERMAN NOTE ON WAY.

Berlin Forwards Communication Dealing With Passport Frauds.
Secretary Lansing has announced that Ambassador Gerard at Berlin had received and was forwarding by mail a note from the German government with reference to the alleged misuse of American passports as a means of which had been under way for several months. The investigation was the result of Secretary Lansing's note of July 28, calling attention to the alleged infraction.

The Secretary said he would reserve comment until the note reached here and its contents examined. It is understood, however, that from previous conferences between Ambassador Gerard and officials at the Berlin foreign office the German government denied completely in the misuse of American passports.

MEMORIAL TO JOHN TYLER UNVEILED AT RICHMOND

First Instance of Federal Recognition in This Manner of Man Who Left Union.

RICHMOND, Va., October 13.—The unveiling of the monument of John Tyler, tenth President of the United States, in Hollywood cemetery yesterday afternoon marked the first occasion on which the federal government has recognized in this manner a man who left the Union in 1861. The appropriation for the monument was made by Congress in 1910. President Tyler served in both branches of Congress, was Governor of Virginia and at the time of his death, in 1862, was a member-elect of the Confederate Congress.

Gov. Stuart Presides.

Gov. H. C. Stuart of Virginia presided at the ceremonies, which were attended by United States Senators Thomas S. Martin, Claude A. Swanson and D. U. Fletcher, Representatives J.
Thompson Baker of New Jersey, E. W.
Roberts of Massachusetts and James McClintock of Oklahoma, in addition to a number of prominent Virginians.
Mrs. Anne Johnson, the only surviving daughter of President Tyler, unveiled the monument, and addresses were delivered by Armistead C. Gordon of Staunton, Va., and former Representative John Lamb of Richmond.

A man isn't necessarily polished just because you see his finish.
